Massachusetts W. C. T. U. State Song.

BY ELLA GILBERT IVES.

Air—Rock of Liberty.—James G. Clark.

O the old Bay State, the old Bay State!
With hand outstretched at the nation's gate:
And the mighty curve of her rocky soil
Like a brawny arm round the sons of toil;
A queen she stands by her altar fires,
Lit with freedom's torch by our pilgrim sires;
And she dares to say this blood-bought strand
Shall be redeemed, redeemed—Immanuel's land.

O the old Bay State, the old Bay State!
There are foes within that would seal her fate;
But her knee is bent on the storied rock
That defied of old the billow's shock.
As she fronts the east with flag unfurled,
And her symbol white, she can face the world;
And she dares to say this sin-cursed strand
Shall be redeemed, redeemed—Immanuel's land.

O the old Bay State, the old Bay State!
Where the hand of God wrote a nation's date!
By Bradford's quill and Warren's sword,
By Shaw's white deed and Phillips' word,
By Livermore's bright scroll of fame,
By Willard's Concord blood and name,
She dares to say this blood-bought strand
Shall be redeemed, redeemed—Immanuel's land.
